

Stockinbingal Hotels

Carrington Hotel, Dudauman Street.
Owned by Fredrick Michael West between 18 Nov 1895 and 1 Nov 1909.
The hotel was later to be renamed,
Commercial Hotel.

Carrington Hotel, early 1900s'.

Carrington Hotel, 1905.

Livery stables at the Carrington Hotel, 1900.

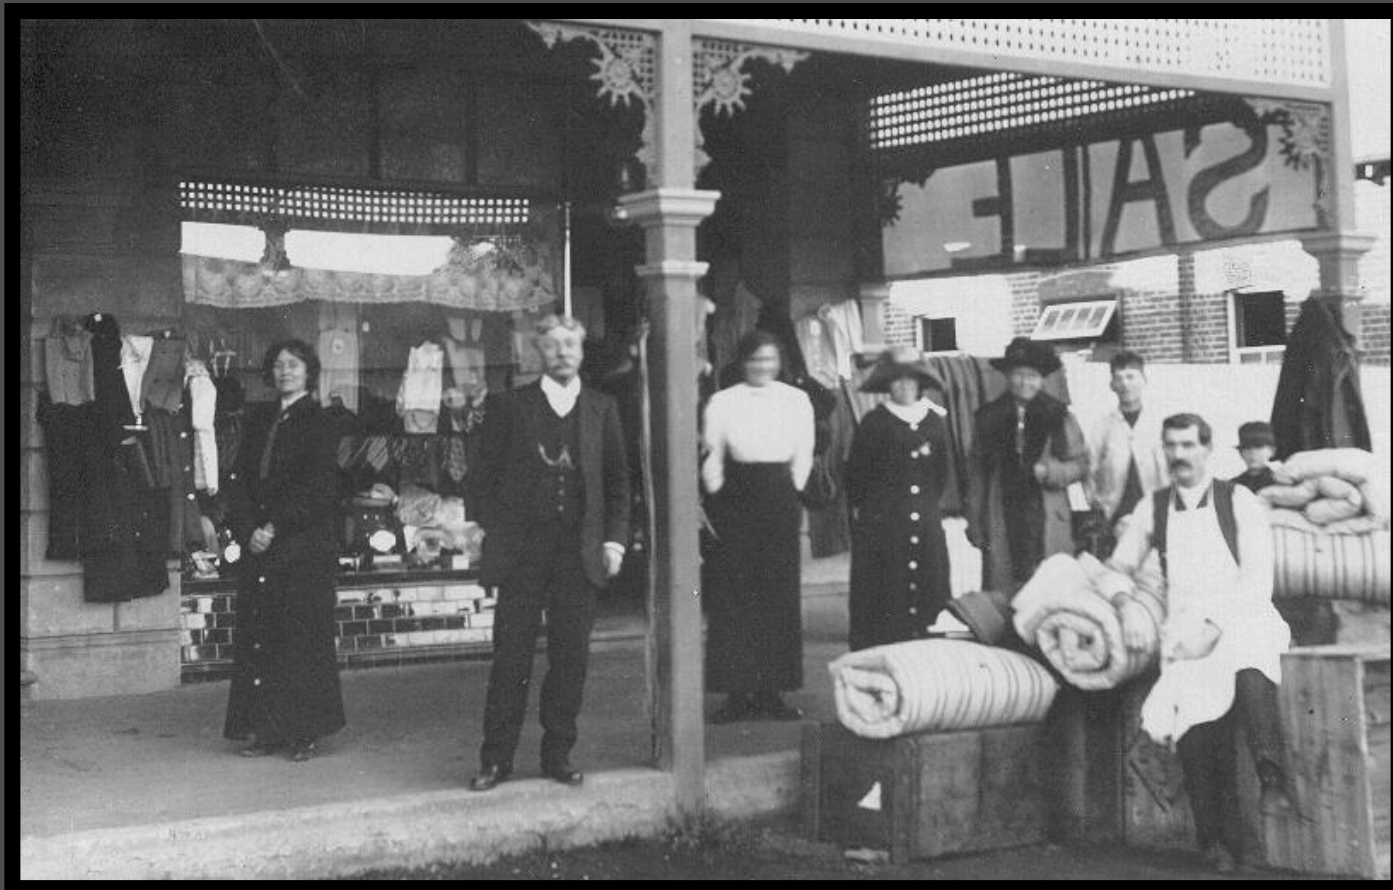

The Carrington Hotel was purchased by Thomas Ellwood from Fred West in November 1909. In 1911 Ellwood enlarged the hotel to two storeys and included 17 rooms upstairs. In 1913 he added a wing and Ellwood's Hall in Martin Street. Thomas Ellwood retained the licence till 1921.

Commercial Hotel, 1911.

Commercial Hotel, 1914.

Mr & Mrs Frobisher storekeeper (clothes and some general supplies) located on the end of the verandah of the hotel.

Commercial Hotel and McLeod's Store.
Year unknown.

Commercial Hotel.
Year unknown.

Commercial Hotel, 1973.

Martin Street side. Original verandah has been removed and shops closed. Note fire bell in foreground.

Stockinbingal Hotel.

Built 1888 by Edward Woodhouse for David White (1st owner).

Licence transferred to Oswald Edward Murray, Mr & Mrs Simons, J. O'Brien,
W. Ayers, Mr & Mrs Platton of Canada,
W.Gow, Bert Cooley, T.F.Ellwood.

Licence was surrendered 26 April 1934 and hotel closed by Licences Reduction Board.
The hotel is still located today at the eastern end of Martin St.

Stockinbingal Hotel.
Year unknown.

Stockinbingal Hotel, early 1900s'.
Eastern end of Martin Street.

Stockinbingal Hotel, early 1900s'.

Dinga Dingi Homestead.

Oldest country building in the area.

It was previously a hotel, used by Cobb and Co as a coach stop. Now a private residence. Year unknown.

